

eConnect

A program of your local service coop

Instructional Resources Now Available for Teachers at Discounted Prices

The founders of ONEder created a system, unlike any other, to increase the efficiency and effectiveness of special education! It's a system that involves teachers, students and parents.

Learn more here.

Early childhood educators will be thrilled to learn they can now save on LEGO Education products! CPC is the only consortium to offer a discount on LEGO Education preschool products. Click here to learn how to save on solutions that enable children to build fundamental skills for school readiness!

Math as a game! What a concept. Far more interactive and challenging than worksheets or computer-based practice programs, Motion Math successfully merges game play with learning. Learn more when you sign up for a free 14 day trial.

One of the most popular educational companies in America is now a partnered vendor with CPC. Teachers and principals are excited to order from Lakeshore Learning's extensive catalog of early childhood and elementary instructional materials – including special education. The easiest way to order is through our online marketplace Express at www.cpcexpress.org.

School Health caters to the needs of special education and early childhood by providing a wide variety of products. For special education they have Teddy Talker, the C-Pen ReaderPen and much more. For early childhood, School Health offers items for health and wellness, infection prevention and much more! Click here to see how easy it is to order with your CPC discount.

Click here to start shopping on Express!